Binge Social Media Posts

Social media post designs for Binge, a mock streaming platform. These engaging visuals promote popular shows and seasonal highlights, using bold imagery, clear messaging, and consistent branding.

IDT Social Media Campaign

Social media campaign design for Interactive Design & Technology (IDT), featuring vibrant, engaging visuals and student spotlights. The carousel format highlights recent projects, emerging technologies like VR, and personalized testimonials to inspire and connect with the audience. The cohesive branding and professional layout are tailored for social media promotion.

DuoTone Plugin Ad

Promotional ad design for DuoTone, a Photoshop plugin that simplifies the creation of striking two-tone effects. The design features bold gradients and dynamic typography to showcase the plugin's creative potential and appeal to modern graphic designers.

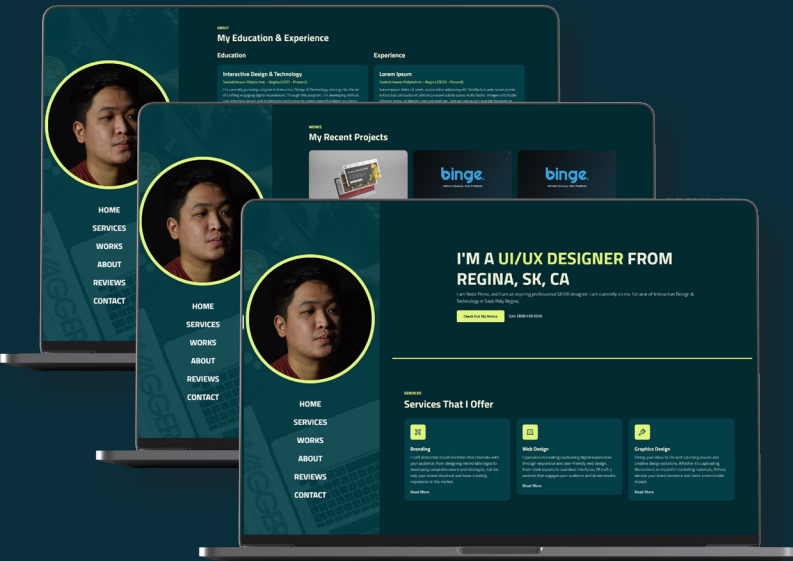

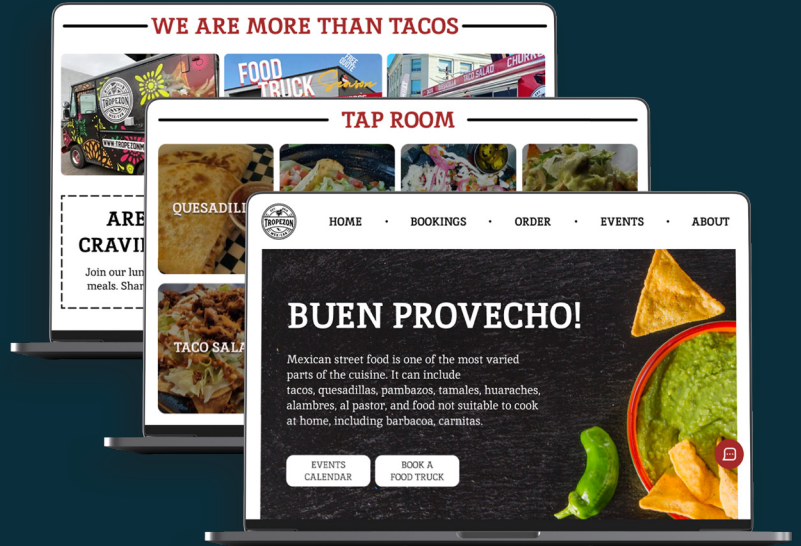

Twisted Reunion

Movie poster design for Twisted Reunion, featuring an intense horror theme with iconic characters. The design combines bold typography, eerie red tones, and haunting imagery to create a chilling atmosphere perfect for horror enthusiasts.

Tropezon Web Redesign

Website redesign for Tropezon, showcasing a modern and user-friendly layout. The design highlights key features such as event booking, food truck locations, and menu exploration with bold visuals and engaging typography. The goal was to enhance the browsing experience while celebrating the vibrancy of Mexican cuisine.

Web Portfolio

Personal web portfolio design showcasing a my skills learned in my first year in IDT. The layout highlights key sections, including services, recent projects, education, and experience, with a sleek, modern design. The cohesive branding, intuitive navigation, and engaging visuals create a strong digital presence tailored for potential clients and employers.

Web Portfolio #2

Second version of a personal web portfolio for myself, featuring a bold introduction and a focus on professional photography and design work. The clean layout emphasizes a dynamic range of projects, combining creative storytelling with functional design. Engaging visuals and a sleek aesthetic create a strong, memorable online presence.
